

2007 Pennington & Co.

FRMT Risk Management College

The 2007 Pennington & Co. FRMT Risk Management College is proud to announce its featured CAMPUSPEAK presenters. Collectively, these three educators represent innovative thinking, creative communications and they provide an agenda-setting influence in the world of higher education and Greek Affairs.

We hope that you will take advantage of their expertise by sending staff to the 2007 Risk Management College, June 26, in Indianapolis. We also hope that you will consider inviting any of our featured speakers to provide training for your organization. Discounts may be available for HRH/Kirklin & Co., LLC clients summer convention bookings. Call CAMPUSPEAK at 303-745-5545 for more information or go to www.campuspeak.com to arrange a date.

Thank you for your support of the Pennington & Co. FRMT Risk Management College. We look forward to working with your staff in June.

Dr. Lori Hart Ebert
ebert@campuspeak.com
(404) 816-0111

Lori Hart Ebert is one of the nation's most popular Greek keynote speakers. She is the Director of Alcohol Education for Pi Kappa Phi Fraternity, and she speaks on dozens of campuses each year on issues ranging from gender communication to alcohol abuse and the promise of Greek Life. Lori holds a doctorate in higher education from Georgia State University, and she has professional experience in a variety of student affairs disciplines, including Greek Life, orientation and leadership development. She is a past regional vice president of the Association of Fraternity Advisors and is active in her sorority, Alpha Omicron Pi. Her most popular program for fraternity conventions is Making Greek Great Again, a keynote that challenges fraternity members to return to the highest standards of Greek Life. Learn more about Lori's keynote programs at www.campuspeak.com/speakers/ebert.

Erle Moring
emorning@aol.com
(205) 427-0503

Erle is a relatively new addition to the Greek speaking circuit, but he is already earning raves for his anti-hazing program, Hazed and Confused. Erle openly discusses the mistakes and bad choices he and his peers made, both as individuals and as chapter and council leaders, with regard to harmful fraternity hazing traditions. The lineups, the visitations, the spotlight parties, the hot-boxes, the yelling, the intimidation. In passionately recalling the hazing and the deaths of the two young men during his time at Auburn University, Erle draws students into the experiences that forever changed his view of fraternity and the values of Greek Life. Erle received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Public Relations/Journalism and a Master of Arts degree in Communication from Auburn. He is a member of Sigma Nu Fraternity and for years has been active in the fraternity's LEAD program for new members. Learn more about Erle's keynote programs at www.campuspeak.com/speakers/moring.

T.J. Sullivan
sullivan@campuspeak.com
(303) 263-4162

T.J. Sullivan is one of the best-known names in the interfraternal community, having keynoted every Greek regional conference at least three times. His program, Confronting the Idiot in Your Chapter, is an upbeat and funny look at many of the problems facing Greek chapters. In his keynote, he gives students the courage and skills needed to confront negative behavior in their brothers and sisters. His program, The Apathy Myth, gives chapter presidents innovative techniques for improving chapter morale and involvement. T.J. has been honored with the top national award from the Association of Fraternity Advisors and the Silver Medal from the NIC for his educational efforts. He is a member of Pi Kappa Phi, a graduate of Indiana University, and a founding partner of CAMPUSPEAK. Learn more about T.J.'s programs at www.campuspeak.com/speakers/sullivan.
